HOOSIER PROFILES

STEVE AIRD

HEAD COACH
4TH YEAR AT IU

Indiana head coach Steve Aird enters his fourth year with the Indiana volleyball program in the fall of 2021.

A two-time NCAA champion as an assistant coach at Penn State, Aird is an elite recruiter and has already brought new energy into the Indiana volleyball program.

Aird recruited the Hoosiers 2020 freshmen class, which ranked No. 15 in the country, the highest ranked class in program history. It included the Hoosiers second highest ranked individual recruit in program history in No. 32 Tommi Stockham and two Under Armour All-Americans.

In the 2019 season, Aird guided the Hoosiers to an 11-2 start in non-conference action, including a win over No. 15 Kentucky in Lexington. The win over UK was the Hoosiers first win against Kentucky since 1996 and first non-conference win since 1998.

Aird continued to build momentum for the Hoosiers as the program set an average attendance record of 1,809 fans per match, which ranked in the top-15 among all NCAA DI programs.

In his first season in Bloomington, Aird led the Hoosiers to an overall record of 16-15 and 7-13 mark in Big Ten play. The Hoosiers swept Ohio State for the first time since 2008 and picked up a win over No. 14 Michigan.

Under Aird, junior middle blocker Deyshia Lofton earned All-Big Ten Second Team honors and sophomore libero Bayli Lebo set an Indiana record for single season digs with 525. The Hoosiers saw record crowds turnout for their matches and set a new average season attendance record for University Gym.

The Hoosiers have moved into a state-of-the-art $17 million facility in Wilkinson Hall and Aird is excited to build the program moving forward.

At Maryland, Aird inherited a program that not only went 13-19 and finished 13th in the Atlantic Coast Conference in 2013, but was also preparing to join arguably the nation's best volleyball conference - the Big Ten. After winning just 10 matches overall and three in the Big Ten in his debut season, Aird quickly turned the Terrapins' fortunes around. This year's 18 wins represented the program's most since 2010, while the seven conference victories was easily the most since UM joined the Big Ten. Notable wins this fall came against eventual Elite Eight participant USC as well as NCAA qualifier Purdue.

"I am humbled and honored to accept the Head Coaching position at Indiana University. I believe Indiana Volleyball has a rightful place among the nation's elite and we will work tirelessly to make that a reality," Aird said. "I cannot thank Fred Glass and his staff enough for this opportunity and for their commitment to building an excellent program the right way. Brandy and I could not be more excited to be a part of the IU family and the Bloomington community."

Among Aird's greatest attributes is his ability to recruit. In 2016, Aird welcomed the nation's 16th ranked recruiting class to College Park, Md., and he followed that up with the program's first-ever top-10 class in 2017. That infusion of talent not only helped elevate Maryland in the Big Ten standings, but also created a level of excitement that had been lacking. Six of the program's top-10 attendance marks came during Aird's four-year stint.

Before taking over at Maryland, Aird enjoyed highly-successful assistant coaching stints at Penn State (2007, 2012-13), Cincinnati (2005-07) and Auburn (2002-05). At Penn State, he helped the Nittany Lions to NCAA titles in both 2007 and 2013 along with a Final Four berth in 2012.

In addition to his success in the coaching ranks, Aird also served as the President and CMO of Complete Athlete Inc., from 2007-12, where he helped train and develop youth volleyball players. Many of his players went on to play at the D-I level, including programs such as Penn State, Stanford, Washington, Florida and Tennessee.

A native of London, Ontario, Canada, Aird was a four-year member of Penn State's men's volleyball program from 1997-01. He was a two-year captain and helped the Nittany Lions to three appearances in the Final Four.

Aird, who earned his bachelor's degree in Letters, Arts and Sciences from Penn State in 2001, is married to the former Brandy Wilson. The couple has two sons, Caelan and Padraic, and a daughter, Mackenzie.

"The entire volleyball family at Indiana is thrilled to welcome Krista," IU head coach Steve Aird said. "Her career speaks for itself and now she will turn her attention to training, recruiting and mentoring. She has a deep desire to help players grow as people and reach their full potential as athletes. She understands the game at a very high level and I am excited to work with her. Our goal is to transform this program into one of the nation's elite and Krista is built for that challenge."

"I am thrilled to join Coach Aird at Indiana," Vansant said. "The passion and commitment that the athletic department are displaying surrounding volleyball are second to none. It is an unbelievable opportunity to build a successful, elite program. I am beyond thankful to Coach Aird and Mattie White for giving me this opportunity. Indiana University is a truly special place and I couldn't be more thrilled to join the Hoosier community. The future for Indiana volleyball is bright."

Vansant, a native of Redlands, Calif., graduated from Washington in 2015 with a bachelor's degree in Sociology.

Vansant finished her playing career at UW with 1,893 career kills, which included 565 kills (4.67 kills per set) and a .320 hitting percentage in her senior year.

Lauren Ditteon racked up eight double-doubles in 2007, and came just one block shy of pulling off the triple-double on two different occasions. She flashed her versatility and consistency all season long by totaling 261 kills, 254 digs, 38 service aces and 95 total blocks while playing in all 17 games. For her career, Ditteon missed just one match in four years donning the Cream and Crimson. In that time she put together numbers that have placed her name into the school record books. Her 1,068 career kills are the 13th highest total in IU history. Also, her 94 aces place her 15th all-time.

ERICA SHORT

2005-08
2008 H.M.

Erica Short's team-leading 554 kills in 2008 were just one put-away shy of tying the IU single-season record set by Christina Archibald in '02. Short shattered Archibald's career kill total (1,808), however, compiling 1,889 kills in her four years playing for the Hoosiers, becoming IU's all-time kills queen. Averaging 4.54 kills per set as a senior, Short ranked in the national top-10 in that category, coming in at ninth place. She contributed defensively as well, racking up 319 total blocks in her career, the seventh highest total in school history. She was named All-America honorable mention following her final season in Bloomington, becoming just the second Hoosier to ever receive that recognition. In addition, her 24-kill performance in a 3-0 sweep of Valparaiso on Sept. 5, 2008 is the greatest three-set offensive output in IU lore. Even more impressive is the fact that Short compiled those kills in the new 25-point per set format implemented prior to the '08 season rather than the 30-point or 15-point non-rally scoring system used in previous years. The Orrville, Ohio native racked up 20-or-more kills on 29 occasions and record double-digit kills 105 times, both all-time Hoosier records. Short took her game to the next level over the summer, playing professionally for the Gigantes de Carolina located in Puerto Rico.

A unanimous selection to the All-Big Ten squad two years in a row, Benson leaves Indiana as one of the most dominant offensive and defensive players in Big Ten history. In her senior campaign, Benson ranked in the top-10 nationally for both hitting efficiency and blocks per set. Her name could be found all over the Big Ten's statistical leaderboards:

- 2nd with a .413 hitting efficiency (10th nationally)
- 3rd with 1.38 blocks per set (9th nationally)
- 3rd with 4.46 points per set
- 7th with 3.51 kills per set

A unanimous selection to the All-Big Ten squad following her junior season. She put together one of the most dominant seasons in the league both offensively and defensively. In addition to shattering the IU record for season hitting efficiency with her .361 percentage, Benson could also be found all over the Big Ten's statistical leaders. She cracked the conference's top-10 for hitting efficiency (4th), blocks (6th, 1.18), points (7th, 4.24), kills (8th, 3.32) and aces (9th, .026) per set. She was also named a third team All-American in 2009.

As a sophomore, Benson led the Hoosiers in both hitting efficiency (.303) and total blocks (167) in 2008. Her season block total did not only give her a per-set average of 1.37 blocks, the 19th highest in the country, but that total also broke the all-time school record for most blocks in a single season at IU. The Bloomington, Ind., native also contributed 372 kills, 82 digs and seven service aces. Her .303 hitting efficiency (372-119-834) tied for the sixth highest single-season percentage in school history. She was also selected to play for the U.S. Women's National A2 Team.

In total, the Cherry Valley, Ill., native racked up 403 kills, 227 digs and 55 blocks on the year. She highlighted her season with 30 kills against Tennessee in the second round of the NCAA Tournament. In 2012, Haverly added 480 kills, 47 blocks and 38 aces. Her 4.08 kills per set in Big Ten play ranked sixth in the conference in 2012.
